Modern Fountain Family et al

Started: July 2003

Updated: September 7, 2005

This addendum contains “random” tidbits from the Fountain family and collateral families like the Oldfields and Scholes and Butterworths and Chaddertons – by “modern,” the author means late 1800s-1900s; see separate, more coherent, Addenda for more recent family members. The author can't emphasize enough the random nature of what is presented here!

Another Photo

Another photo has been found. The author made an inquiry, once again, to her uncles, and learned who everyone is.¹

Back row: Richard (Acey), Diane (the author), Fred (Hicklin), Margaret Fountain (Acey), Elsie Taylor (Fountain), Vera (Hicklin)

Middle row: Doris (Shakespeare), Jim (Shakespeare), Debbie (Acey)

So, you are seeing these ladies many years later!

Hannah Jane Butterworth Fountain

In the course of researching the Fountains, particularly Rachel, the Oldham Local Studies library found a death notice for Hannah Jane. This appeared in the Oldham Weekly Chronicle 10 October 1964. Where it says, Rachel, Jack, Elsie, Margaret, Ian, Neil, Diane, Debbie ... Diane is the author and Margaret is her mother.

John Frederick Fountain Found in 1891!!!

The pattern for the Fountain family was that in general, the family of George and Fanny rarely lived together.

- 1871 -- Franny and John Frederick are with her parents (with no idea where George was!)
- 1881 -- John Frederick and Ada are found living with their grandparents the Oldfields
- 1891 -- much of the family was actually together, even though by now George was a widower -- except for Ada & Frances who were now with their grandparents and John Frederick who could not be found in Oldham,
- 1901 -- the family is much more scattered with the children all living other than with their father and his second wife Lily and by this time their grandparents, the Oldfields, are deceased.

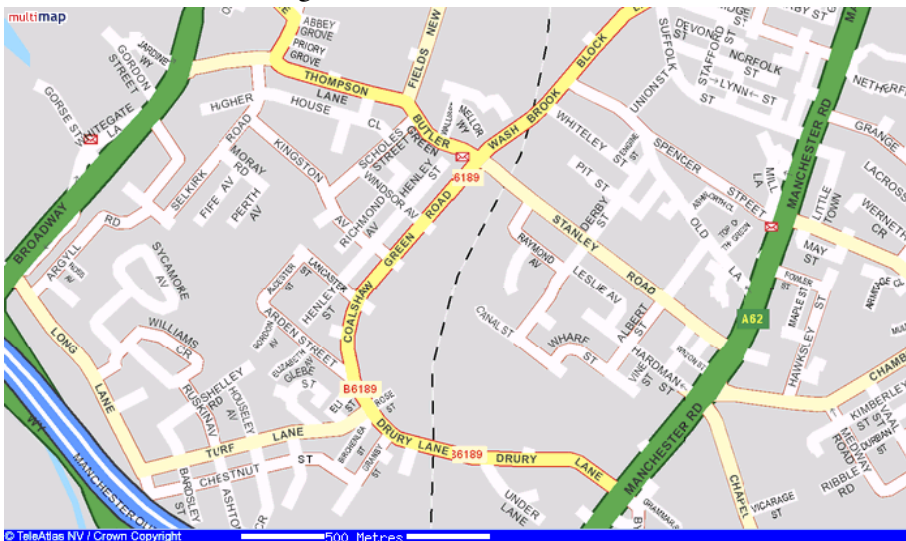

Another attempt at a general search across all of England in the 1891 census finally finds John Frederick. Why he wasn't found in previous attempts was that he was listed as from Oldham, LINCOLNSHIRE and not LANCASHIRE! This is our John Frederick though ... a 20 year old basket maker from Oldham! Apparently, he was serving an apprenticeship or visiting the area. We will probably never know how he got there.

Fountain Family – Bits 'n Pieces

He was at 180 London Road, Long Sutton, Lincolnshire at the home of Edward Browning, also a Basket Maker.

This gets one wondering again where John and William are in 1901 (we don't spot John again till his marriage in 1908 ... when he was living at 113 Coalshaw Green Road (Chadderton) and William till his marriage in 1915!) ... In 1901, John would be about 30 and William would be about 17 (according to an age of 7 in 1891). Obviously, for the latter this also indicates that he was born c. 1884 and not 1895! Unfortunately, with the 1901 census, there are only so many ways to search the index and so far

John Frederick and William have not surfaced!

The map above is the location of Coalshaw Green Road (from multimap)... starting at the intersection of Turf Lane and Drury Lane (looking at the map, you will see Albert St. and Hardman street where the family subsequently had connections are also shown).

And, though his sister Frances (and husband Ephraim) were the witnesses to his wedding in 1908, they were not married in 1901 so really no help there. (ASIDE ... the marriage for Frances and Ephraim has yet to be located nor has an appropriate Ephraim Jackson been located in the 1901 census though this entry is a possibility -- Ephraim Jackson | 18 | Lancs Withington | Borough Of Manchester | South Manchester | Tea Van Assistant ... |).

Also, the author has realized that she had a "brain bly" when researching the Fountain siblings in 1901 ... in an Addendum in 2003, the following was given:

It also appears that the Fountain children were dispersed before this census. The following entries may be children of George and Fanny.

Name	Age	Where Born	Admin Cty	Civil Parish	Occupation
Emma Fountain	18	Lanc Oldham	Lancaster	Pendleton	General Domestic Servant
Frances Fountain	15	Lanc Oldham	Lancashire	Moss Side	General Servant Domestic
Mary Fountain	28	Lanc Oldham		Oldham	Cotton Reeler in Mill

The issue with this is that yes, Mary would have been 28 and Frances would have been about 15, and so the author has confidence in their entries. Well, Emma should have been 22 ... its not impossible that this is her, it's a little questionable. No entries exist for an Emma with the appropriate age!

Harriet Whitehead Oldfield

This is the wife of John Oldfield, brother of Fanny. In 1901³ we find that John has died leaving Harriet as a widow..

More and more information is being placed on <http://freebmd.rootsweb.com> and www.lancashirebmd.org . The Fountain family has been looked into a bit more since there were always a scattered family on census night!

{now who is this? Born c. 1831! Child of Joseph & Mary? Further research indicates that this is probably a Joseph Fountain, born in Huntington who ends up having the other Fountain entries in the databases that the author couldn't place! In 1881, the census entry for the family lists:

Hannah Fountain and Mary Anne Fountain

The author has never tried to really track the marriage of George's sisters, Hannah and Maryanne ... looking at <http://freebmd.rootsweb.com> had a Hannah Fountain marrying in the same month as brother George. Looking further indicates that her possible spouse was Joseph Ingham. Well, looking at the 1881 census (www.familysearch.org) the author finds:

Household:

Name	Relation	Marital Status	Gender	Age	Birthplace	Occupation
Joseph INGHAM	Head	M	Male	29	Oldham, Lancashire, England	Grocer
Hannah INGHAM	Wife	M	Female	36	Oldham, Lancashire, England

Which is a possibility for George's sister Hannah. (strangley, this address was occupied in 1891 by George Hodgkinson (distant relative) and family and was the Drover's Inn!?!?!? ... "The Drover's Boy was opened in 1861 by Abraham Wild and originally called the Duke Of Edinburgh. It changed to the Drover's Boy in 1886 when the house was owned by Thomas Taylor of Chadderton Cottage, Burnley Lane, Chadderton and leased to the brewers J.W.Lees." so, if operating as the Drover's Inn from 1861+, how do the Ingham's as grocers end up there in 1881? More than likely there is an error in the data)

We don't find the family in 1901 and it might be that Hannah was already dead ... though we don't find a corresponding death entry for Joseph (the ages are all higher than one would expect from the 1881 census information)

Expanding the search for a marriage for Mary Ann beyond Oldham, the following is found:

FOUNTAIN Mary A Manchester 8d 517 Info

Possibilities for spouse are: John Eastwood or Charles Brierly ... so, now lets look at the 1881 census and see what we find!

This might be a possibility from the 1881 census:

Household:

Name	Relation	Marital Status	Gender	Age	Birthplace	Occupation

This hasn't been pursued further and so is not confirmed!

Eda Fountain Hazeltine

The author was able to research a bit further on Eda (sister of John Frederick) and husband John Hazeltine with success and the author also searched on sister Harriet (and spouse Edward Walker) and they were not located in the 1901 (www.census.pro.gov.uk) census; no detailed information was collected. The following entries were found and they seem consistent with the known information.

Eda Hazeltine	23	Lancs Oldham	Lancashire	Oldham
Ada Hazeltine	3	Lancs Oldham	Lancashire	Oldham
George Hazeltine	5M	Lancs Oldham	Lancashire	Oldham
John Hazeltine	24	Lancs Shaw	Lancashire	Oldham	Coal Miner

Mary Ann Oldfield

A related continuing challenge has been to find the death of Mary Ann Oldfield. We know from Chadderton Cemetery that John died in 1895 and is buried with Mary Fountain et al. So, when did Mary Ann (Hodgkinson) Oldfield die and where is she buried? She was 68 in 1891 ... so the research started in Jun 1891 ... after the census. Some of the possibilities are:

Mar 1893	Oldfield Mary Ann	69	Manchester	8d 189
Sep 1893	Oldfield Mary	69	Ashton	8d 415

But, if she was one of these, and died before John in 1895, why wouldn't she be buried with the Fountain family as John subsequently was or why wouldn't John be listed with a deceased wife on his death certificate? Currently, no other likely candidates are apparent ... though, the records available are not yet exhaustive. Also, the 1901 census confirmed that 17 Dundee Street, for several years where the Oldfield family resided, is now lived in by another family.

Tracking the Oldfield children ... we surmise that both John William Oldfield and Elizabeth Oldfield married in 1875, <http://freebmd.rootsweb.com>

Marriages Mar 1875

OLDFIELD Elizabeth Oldham 8d 1045
OLDFIELD John William Oldham 8d 1044

The question is, where are these people in the 1890s ... let's start by looking in the 1881 census. Well, we already know that in 1881, John was with his inlaws, the Whitehead family and by 1901 Harriet was a widow (though John appears to have lived through at least c 1891-1892 based on the ages of the children ... and in Oldham – see previous discussion on Harriet Whitehead Oldfield).

So, what about Elizabeth ... it looks like she married a Broderick or Pontefract ... let's see what we can find out. Looking at the 1881 census, it appears that Elizabeth married William Broderick ... the 1881 census (www.familysearch.org) shows:

Household:

Name	Relation	Marital Status	Gender	Age	Birthplace	Occupation
William BRODERICK	Head	M	Male	34	Gt Grimsby, Lincoln, England	Skip Maker
Elizabeth BRODERICK	Wife	M	Female	26	Gainsborough, Lincoln, England

Scholes Connections ...

A reminder of where the Scholes family fits in ... John Richard Fountain's parents were John Frederick Fountain and Hannah Jane Butterworth, Hannah Jane Butterworth's parents were Daniel Richard Butterworth and Rachel Chadderton, Rachel Chadderton's parents were Henry Chadderton and Isabella Scholes. When Henry and Isabella first married, they lived with a William Scholes who one would surmise was a brother or other relative of Isabellas. The Scholes sisters listed here are the daughters of the aforementioned William Scholes.

Through the 1881 census, we had found 4 of the Scholes sisters still single and living together. In 1891, we find 3 of the Scholes sisters and a nephew, living together at 36 Lees Road, Glodwick.
