Deremer Family – New Jersey to Mauch Chunk, Pennsylvania

Introduction

This family proved challenging in that Peter was only in Mauch Chunk for one census before he died. Fortunately, some serendipity helped us identify what “may be” his ancestry. Otherwise, we have no confirmation of his parents, when or where his marriage to Mary Quick occurred or the births/baptisms of his children. Similarly, we have no information on the parentage of Mary. At the time of her death, her obituary only lists her children and no siblings, nieces or nephews or other extended family!

One suspects that the May at the end is really mother Mary ... relationships are not listed!

We lose track of the family until the death notice of Mary Quick Deremer Davenport ... this reveals her children and that she was Mary Quick Deremer Davenport! These entries are actually from an Index available at the Dimmick Memorial Library, Jim Thorpe, PA. → CG refers to the “Coal Gazette” the local newspaper and 1896/06/05 is the date of Mary’s obituary. Her actual obituary is below under Birth, Marriage, Death.

It's strange that Robert is not listed as we have his obituary from 1901 ... so his mother did pre-decease him!

Birth, Marriage, Death

From the census we could "assume" that Peter died sometime before 1860. We now have some convincing information on that<sup>v</sup> ...

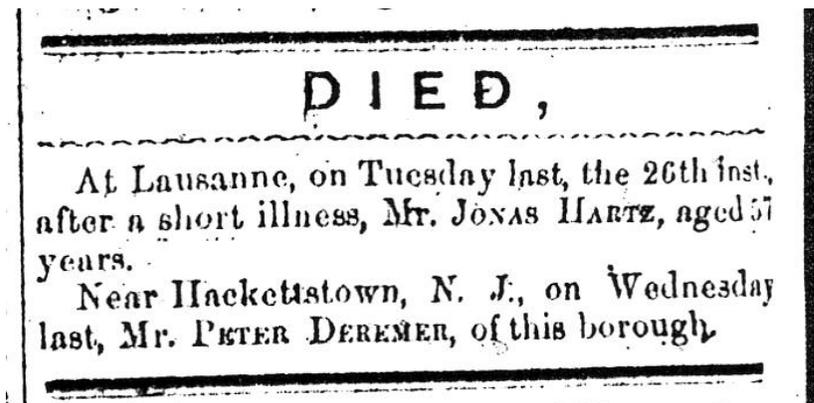

You are in luck with Peter Deremer. The story with the Mauch Chunk Cemetery is that it began "business" around 1819, and was company owned until 1847 when it was deeded over to the town as a public cemetery. However, records were not kept until around 1870, and even after that point the records were not perfect. One or two members of the board at some point went around the cemetery and recorded stones from the period before 1870, when the records began, but of course, they didn't get everyone.

Peter Deremer is one of those who was over looked. Fortunately, I recently was lent a booklet of 19th century burials in the cemetery, put together partly from gravestones recorded back in the 1970s. There's a good chance some of the info in the booklet is now worn away, or maybe the entire stone is gone now.

Anyway, according to the fellow who recorded the stone, Peter was born 5/3/1809 and died 8/27/1856.

We were then able to get his death notice<sup>vi</sup>.

It ends up that Hackettstown used to be part of Independence and split off just a few years before this. Well, Independence is the rumored location of Peter's birth! See more on that below!

Death of Mrs. Davenport.

Mrs. Mary M. Davenport died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. F. Luckenbach, No. 61, Broadway, Tuesday morning at about half past eight o'clock of paralysis and general debility, at the age of 84 years, 5 months and 10 days.

Mrs. Davenport was formerly Miss Quick. Her first husband was Mr. De Reemer and her second Mr. Davenport, who died 11 years ago; since which time Mrs. Davenport lived with her daughter, Mrs. Luckenbach. She was born in New Jersey, but has lived the greater part of her life in Mauch Chunk. She leaves five sons and three daughters: Isaac, of Bethlehem; Abile and Irvin, of Hazleton; Robert, of Mauch Chunk; Charles, of Luzerne county; Mrs. Charles Kannapel, of East Mauch Chunk; Mrs. E. F. Luckenbach, of Mauch Chunk, and Mrs. Charles Armbruster, of East Mauch Chunk. Two of her children have gone before her into the eternal world.

Mrs. Davenport was a member of the Methodist church but had a strong affinity for the Presbyterian people of Mauch Chunk. She had been unable to attend church for many years on account of bodily weakness, but still she loved to sit every Sunday afternoon at her window and listen to the singing at the afternoon meetings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms almost immediately adjoining. She took a deep interest in the welfare of everyone, although unable to go from her home. She had many friends who called frequently on her and found her very entertaining at all times. Religion was her chief theme and her Bible was her constant companion and comfort.

The funeral was held at her late home on Thursday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Buchanan officiated and the interment was made in the Upper Mauch Chunk Cemetery.

It was from the above referenced obituary of Mary Davenport that the connection was made to Peter Deremer and her maiden name of Quick! Appendix A summarizes what Mary might have been up to between the death of Peter in 1856 and her death 40 years later in 1896!

Her obituary<sup>vii</sup> is reproduced to the left with another notice<sup>viii</sup> below. See Appendix C for some information from her estate.

THE LATE MRS. DAVENPORT. A

The funeral cortege of the late Mrs. Mary M. Davenport left the house of E. F. Luckenbach, on Broadway, for the cemetery in Upper Mauch Chunk, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Previously services were conducted at the house by Rev. D. M. Buchanan, the of the First Presbyterian Church. The funeral was very largely attended. Among the mourning friends from out of town, were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Irwin DeRemer, Thomas and William DeRemer, Misses Mattie and Helen DeRemer, and Mr. and Mrs. Abile DeRemer, all of Hazleton; Mrs. Charles Armbruster, and son, Edward, of Howley; Mrs. Frank Connor and daughter Ninnie and Lewis Kanapel, of Plymouth, and Isaac DeRemer, of Bethlehem.

The pall bearers were six of the grandsons as follows: Thomas DeRemer, of Hazleton; Edward Armbruster, of Hawley; George Kanapel, of East Mauch Chunk, and Irwin DeRemer and Bert and Will Luckenbach, of Mauch Chunk.

Appendix B Deremer Siblings

Limited effort was put into researching the siblings of Elsie and if time permitted and we could easily search out some information ... that is reported here! Many of the siblings died between 1900 & 1901. This list was compiled from the various censuses. Any of the individuals for whom we have more information, were alive at the time of their mother's death in 1896 and so we had names and locations to work with!

Isaac Deremer

From another Deremer researcher<sup>xi</sup>, we learn:

THE FUNERAL SERVICES of the lately deceased Augustus Belling, for many years tollkeeper at the old Lehigh bridge, took place yesterday afternoon at the Moravian Church. Bishop Edmund de Schweinitz delivered the funeral sermon, in the English language, from the words of Scripture, Ephes. ii. 14: "For He is our peace." The bishop made a short and impressive address in the German language also. An obituary of the deceased was read. Several favorite and well known hymns were sung, and the choir rendered an appropriate anthem; after which the remains were conveyed to their last resting place in the old Moravian burying ground, followed by a large number of relatives and friends of the departed. Rev. E. T. Kluge read the impressive litany for the dead at the grave.

DEATH IN THE SECOND WARD

Robert DeRemer, a well known resident of the second ward, and a brother to the late I. T. DeRemer, of Hazleton, died at ten minutes past eight o'clock Tuesday forenoon at his home on Centre Street, Second Ward, of a general complication of diseases that had affected his kidneys and liver. He was aged 64 years, 2 months and 9 days. Nearly all his matured life was spent in Mauch Chunk. He is remembered as a young man, when he was an engineer at Robinsons steam flouring mill located where the Central Hotel now stands. After that, he became a night watchman at the Lehigh Valley roundhouse in East Mauch Chunk, where he was employed for 23 years. He then took to teaming in which he was engaged up to the present time. In connection with the teaming, he and his sons, Leonard and Irwin are also running a small coal mining operation on Mt. Pisgah, from which many of the residents hereabouts obtain their coal. Mr. DeRemer is survived by his wife, two sons, Leonard and Irwin, and by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Brighton, of East Mauch Chunk, and by Mrs. William B. Meyers and Mrs. Joseph Klinger, of the Second Ward. There are three surviving brothers, Isaac, of Freemansburg, Abiel, of Hazleton, Charles, of Irish Lane, Luzerne County; and three sisters, the wife of Postmaster E. F. Luckenbach, the wife of Charles Kanapel, Sr. of East Mauch Chunk, and the wife of Charles Armbruster of Hawley, Wayne County.

EDWIN F. LUCKENBACH
Postmaster of Mauch Chunk 1899-1912

Edwin F. Luckenbach was born near Bethlehem, Northampton county, Pa., on October 11, 1842, and for many years he served as the postmaster of Mauch Chunk where he was a representative business man, . He was the son of Renautus and Catherine (Boyer) Luckenbach. His father, who in early life had been a blacksmith, later became a boat builder and followed the mercantile career. His mother was a descendant of Isaac Boyer, one of the pioneer settlers of Northampton county. Both father and mother died during the seventies in Kansas, where they spent their declining years. At the age of seventeen E. F. Luckenbach was apprenticed to a house, sign and decorative painter, named Anton Goth, of Bethlehem. His apprenticeship expired on August 3, 1862. On the same day he enlisted in the service of the Union, being enrolled as a private in Company C., One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers. This regiment was commanded by Colonel Jacob G. Frick, and was assigned to the Army of the Potomac, becoming a part of E. B. Tyler's First Brigade of Humphrey's Third Division, Fifth Army Corps. Mr. Luckenbach participated in the battles of Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, and on May 18, 1863, at the expiration of his term of service, was honorably discharged. In 1864 he located permanently in Mauch Chunk, at first devoting his energies to the trade he had learned. On January 1, 1871, he established a stationery, wall paper and paint store at No. 61 Broadway; this he successfully managed in connection with his other interests during the remainder of his life. In 1865 he was married to Miss Mary A. DeRemer, a daughter of Peter and Mary M. (Quick) DeRemer. Four children were born to them: Albert H., Hattie L., wife of A. W. Hooke; William F. and Charles E. Mr. Luckenbach was one of the prime movers in the organization of the Upper Mauch Chunk Water Company in 1872. Being elected as its secretary, he continued in that capacity for forty years. In March, 1899, President McKinley appointed him as postmaster of Mauch Chunk, the duties of which position he discharged with energy and ability until his death, which occurred on March 3, 1912. Mr. Luckenbach was at one time a member of the town council of Mauch Chunk and served as its secretary. He was also a charter member of L. F. Chapman Post, No. 61, Grand Army of the Republic, twice serving as its commander, while being identified with the Royal Arcanum and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. As a citizen he was public spirited and progressive, always actively cooperating in any movement calculated to promote the welfare of the town of his adoption. As a mark of respect to his memory, all business was suspended in Mauch Chunk on the day of his funeral.

It is apparent from the found information that the Luckenbach family was heavily involved with Company C of the 129th PA Volunteers<sup>xlii</sup>:

Appendix C
Mary Quick Deremer Davenport

Mary Quick Deremer becomes Davenport ...

Okay we may have figured out who Mary Quick Deremer married ...

We think that her spouse was “Stephen Davenport” of Huntington Township, Luzerne County ... We know that Luzerne County abuts Carbon County and her marriage could explain how half her children ended up in Hazleton and area ?!?!?

Here’s what we have ...

1. 1870 Census (in 1860 we have all the Deremer children and Mary living together in Mauch Chunk) ...

Huntington, Luzerne, Pennsylvania

Davenport, Stephen	69	Farmer	Penn
Davenport, Mary	56	Keeping House	New Jersey
Davenport, Ira	22	Farm Laborer	Penn
Dreamer, Martha	17	House Keeper	Penn
Others

Note that Mary is from NJ, married to someone named Davenport, born c. 1814 (we would have expected more circa 1810-1812 and we know how that goes) and the individual Martha Dreamer could be Martha Deremer, who was 7 in 1860 ... the youngest daughter

2. 1880 Census has Stephen, Mary and Ira still in Huntington
3. Stephen dies 8/22/1885 which is 11 years (as referenced in Mary’s obituary) before Mary dies in 1896
4. Stephen has a will in which most of his estate is left to his sons and grandchildren and daughters though there is something for his wife Mary Ann
“I do give and desire to my wife Mary Ann if she survive me the sum of Forty Dollars payable annually in equal Semi Annually payments if she will accept the same in lieu of dower. The same in my Judgment being equal to the amount she would get from my estate if I left no will.” Signed the 12th day of August 1881

Interesting bit found in the Wilkes-Barre Record, Mon, Mar 1, 1886<sup>xlix</sup> which probably is a reference to Mary as the widow of Stephen Davenport.

Mary Quick Deremer Davenport Estate ...

The Carbon County Archives does have an estate file for Mary – file #2236. One gathers that it was not a large estate (though no value is indicated) and most interesting is that the siblings all designed that E.F. Luckenbach be the estate administrator and they all signed a letter to that effect (see next page).

Mary Quick ...

As linked in with Peter Deremer – we say that as we will actually look at the Deremer family a bit to see if we can correlate the Quick and Deremer families in a geographic area! It seems fairly certain that Peter hailed from Warren County (or vicinity) and so more than likely that is where he married given that his eldest children were born in New Jersey!

It helps to understand the history of “Independence Township” and of “Warren County” to place this family ....

First, let’s look at Warren County and it’s formation<sup>i</sup>.

Sussex County:

Sussex County records span from 1788 to 1850. Sussex is located at the northernmost tip of New Jersey, bordering Orange County, New York. It was formed in 1753 from Morris County.

Original data: Sussex County, New Jersey Marriages, 1788-1850. County court records located in Newton, New Jersey or Family History Library microfilm #1294801-1294803. Records for 1788-94 were extracted at the state library in Trenton, New Jersey.

Warren County:

Warren County was formed in 1824 from Sussex County. The records from the county in this database cover the years 1823 through 1850.

Original data: Warren County, New Jersey Marriages, 1823-50. County court records located at Belvidere, New Jersey or Family History Library microfilm #1294806-1294808

Then, let’s examine Independence Township<sup>ii</sup> ...

1782	Independence Township is set off from Hardwick.

A history of Independence also explains its relationship with Hackettstown (where Peter died) and Vienna (frequently associated with the Deremer family)<sup>iii</sup>

Independence Region

The township of Independence was incorporated on November 11, 1782. The town of Hackettstown was removed from it in 1853 and Allamuchy Township in 1873. The northern half of the township is dominated by a low-lying glacially formed valley formerly known as The Great Swamp or Great Meadows. It was drained and converted to farmland in the nineteenth century.

Deremer Family – New Jersey to Mauch Chunk, Pennsylvania

The township was sparsely settled before the Revolutionary War. Around the turn of the nineteenth century, small villages began to form as the population growth necessitated a centralized location for trade and socializing. Vienna contained six houses in 1800, and a mill was established in Great Meadows in 1815. By 1830, the township contained eight stores, six saw mills, a number of tanneries and four distilleries.

We also learn that nowadays<sup>liii</sup> ... “Independence Township consists of 20.4 square miles. Its major communities are Vienna and Great Meadows.”

So, when Peter (and possibly Mary) was born, he would have lived in Sussex County and by the time he married, if he was still in Independence Township, he was living in Warren County. So, looking further into this area and the Deremer and Quick families ...

Since there does not appear to be an 1810 or 1820 census covering this area (we gather it was lost) ... We have no way to confirm the families presence in Independence Township! We have looked at the 1830 census index and found the following possibilities ... living in Oxford?

Abram Dereamer	Oxford, Warren, New Jersey
Charles Dereamer	Oxford, Warren, New Jersey
Isaac Dereamer	Oxford, Warren, New Jersey
Jacob Dereamer	Oxford, Warren, New Jersey
Philip Dereamer	Oxford, Warren, New Jersey

This image shows that Phillip and Isaac are living adjacent and that there is obviously a “brother” or older male in the household of Isaac

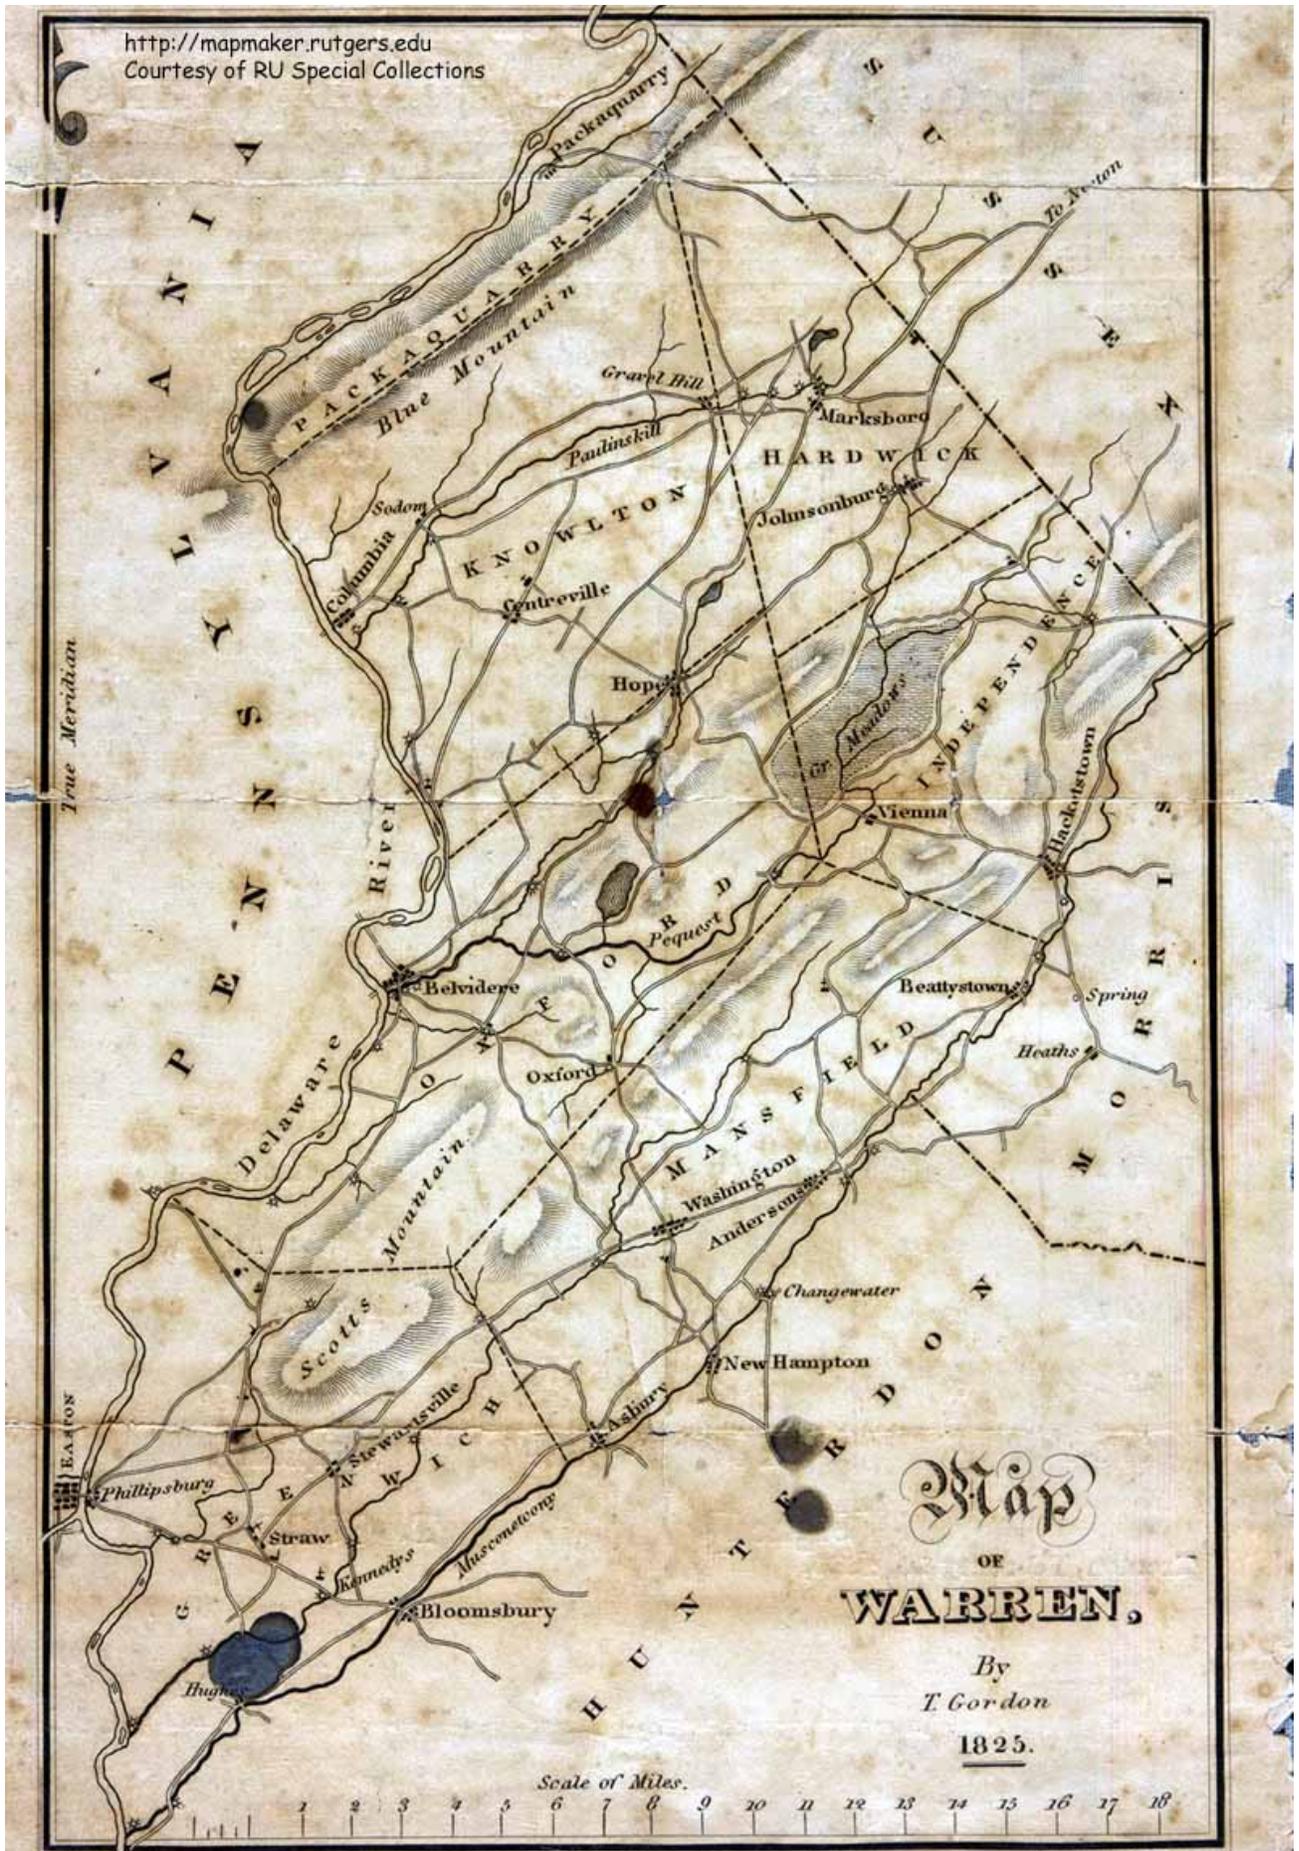

Isaac D. Reamer	2	1	0	2	1	2	1	2	1
Phillip D. Reamer				1		1		2	2

This also shows that it has been spelt De Remer and De Reamer and other variants ... We also see from the 1830 census that a Quick family lived in Belvidere ... maybe the family of Mary?

Elizabeth Quick	Belvidere, Warren, New Jersey
Peter Quick	Belvidere, Warren, New Jersey
Robert Quick	Belvidere, Warren, New Jersey
Samuel Quick	Belvidere, Warren, New Jersey

The next page has a map showing Warren County in 1825<sup>liv</sup> ... to give an idea of where these communities are located. Note that Belvidere is in Oxford Township and that Oxford Township is adjacent to Independence Township. Vienna and Hackettstown are both in Independence Township.

Now, have also come across a family sheet<sup>lv</sup> for a Mary Stryker Quick born in Somerset NJ c. 1809 ... the date is about right ... though, don't know about Somerset NJ connection ...

Though, Somerset county is not adjacent to Warren County ... hard to see how this could be her and Quick was not an uncommon name ... and so, Mary Quick was fairly popular at the time!

And, when she dies on June 2, 1896, her age is given as 84 years, 5 months, 10 days ... meaning that she was born approximately January 1812!!! Hmm ... so, probably not a good match!

Now, the IGI<sup>lv</sup> has a Mary Quick born c. 1812 in Oxford, Warren County – this is a better match as it would put Mary and Peter in the same county .... And as stated before, Oxford and Independence Townships are right next to one another!

Apparently, Robert dies<sup>lvii</sup>

Quick, Robert	April 12, 1867	3

He does not appear to be buried in “Belvidere” cemetery though the son Philip is<sup>lviii</sup>. A quick look at the 1850 census (ww.ancestry.com) shows that Robert has remarried and is living with Rebecca and son John in Oxford Township and it looks like in 1860 his wife is named Lydia and son’s John and Philip are living on both sides of him! We have contacted the Warren County Surrogate’s Office and there is no will for Robert (as stated below) and only one son and a son-in-law are mentioned in the other papers.

Okay ... have found a Quick Family Genealogy published<sup>lix</sup> ... let’s see what it says about Robert ... well, it goes on and seems to disprove that his daughter, Mary, is who married Peter Deremer .... Though, it’s interesting that one of the daughters is missing in the details ... only 2 are listed ... so, it means either that one of them died or is not included ... though Mary is attributed to marrying Tims, the note states that it was unknown whether Nancy or Hannah married Bowers or Tims ... so, somewhat inconsistent!

+ F 758 ROBERT QUICK (E302), b 1782; d 9 Apr. 1867 (V. S.). His wife, ELIZABETH, d 1837, intestate; inv. 31 Mar. 1837 at Oxford, Warren Co., N. J. Inv. of his estate dated 27 Apr. 1867 at Oxford. 5 chil. [G1321-4].

+ G 1322 JOHN P. QUICK (F758), b 26 Nov. 1813; d ———; married and had 3 chil.: JAMES I. QUICK, ELLA QUICK and ROBERT QUICK, according to Sussex Co. records.

G 1324 MARY QUICK (F758), who m ——— TIMS. Their children were John, Ellis, Philip and Hannah Tims, Mariah Barris and Mary Ann Schults. (The entire Quick family data above from Warren Co. Surrogate's office.) (Bible record of chil. of Robert (F758) names dau. Nancy, b 6 June 1808, and Hannah, b 18 Apr. 1810; but no indication which m Bowers or Tims.)

Looking at the 1850 census ... we find that it's Nancy who married Tims ... NOT Mary!!!
The 1850 census entry for the Benjamine & Nancy Tims family matches the children listed above – and the children are all the names of her siblings!!

SO → Mary wrongly attributed to marriage and so she is unaccounted for ... so, she's still a candidate!

We also found some marriage information for select QUICK family members<sup>lx</sup> and what do we find:

Oct 21, 1802 - Swayze, J.P. - Robert Quick, Oxford; Sarah Robeson, Oxford.

QUICK, Nancy; TIMS, Benjamin; Aug 2, 1827; Best, David.

QUICK, Hannah; BOWERS, Michael; Dec 6, 1830; Winner, Rev.

So, this clearly leaves Mary as the un-tracked family member ... either deceased, married to Peter or married to some one else ....

Deremer Family – New Jersey to Mauch Chunk, Pennsylvania

The 1850 census shows some Deremer's still in Independence and Oxford ... are these adjacent communities? -- YES

Abraam Deremer	Independence, Warren, NJ	abt 1800
Cornelia F Deremer	Independence, Warren, NJ	abt 1801	New Jersey
Isaac Deremer	Independence, Warren, NJ	abt 1802	New Jersey
Philip Deremer	Mansfield, Warren, NJ	abt 1800	New Jersey
Ralph Deremer	Oxford, Warren, NJ	abt 1800	New Jersey
Sarah Ann Deremer	Independence, Warren, NJ	abt 1810	New Jersey

This has significance ... remember that Peter died outside Hackettstown, which is adjacent to Independence in 1856!

So, we may have figured out who Mary's parents are. A wedding for Mary to Peter would be nice ... it might at least confirm which communities they were from!

The Belvidere Cemetery ... <http://raub-and-more.com/warrencemlist.html> only lists Philip ... Though individuals didn't always have headstones, records weren't kept in early years and all kinds of obstacles can prevent a cemeteries' transcribed or available information from being complete!

- Quick, Philip, b. Jan 24, 1806, d. Feb 16, 1890.
- Quick, Sarah, w. of Philip, b. Feb 13, 1805, d. May 3, 1888.

The info differs slightly from the published family research previously mentioned!

And, even if this isn't our Quick family ... it has been fun to look into them ... here's a fun notice<sup>ixi</sup>!

CAMP CORRESPONDENCE
From the
34th Regiment, Co. A., Pa. Volunteer Militia

Headquarters,
Camp Muhlenberg, near Reading
July 10, 1863

Thinking that our friends at home would like to know something concerning our movements since leaving there, our present whereabouts, and how our soldier boys are enjoying themselves, I will endeavor to give you a condensed history of all that has transpired since leaving Mauch Chunk on that ever memorable Monday morning when the tocsin of war was sounding through the State, nerving every loyal arm in Pennsylvania, and sending a thrill of mingled pride, patriotism and indignation through all patriotic hearts. We went direct from Mauch Chunk to Harrisburg, where we arrived at 3 P. M., and immediately received our tents, which were soon pitched, and some filled with new mown hay from a neighboring farm, the proprietor of which, contrary to the general practice, did not overcharge for his commodities. That same evening we held an election of officers, the result of which you will find in the list below. We also received orders to march, and at 1 A.M. marched to the depot, and the next morning found us in Reading, where we met the Easton boys, and from thence marched to Camp Hiester. All along the route from Reading to Harrisburg, at each station, we found crowds of able-bodied men, and not unfrequent was the interrogatory I heard soldiers putting to them; "Why don't you cowards go and protect your own property?" I saw no blush of shame, and only bravado in reply. We occasionally seen a drove of horses which some fearful farmer was driving out of harms way.

Our regiment being formed, by having some Norristown, Bethlehem and Scranton companies attached, with the following officers, Col. Charles Albright, Lt. Col. _____ Schall, Major _____ Taylor, both the latter gentlemen from Montgomery county, adjutant A.S. Schropp, Quarter Master Ed. Doster, both the latter from Bethlehem, and Oliver Breneiser, Sergeant Major, we were transferred to Camp Muhlenberg, where our Col., being senior Col., with the Easton Regiment, Col. Hunter with the Berks county Regiment, and Col. Nagle, of Tennessee fame, with the Schuylkill county Regiment, were all here. On the 8th col. Nagle moved off, and yesterday Col. Horn moved, leaving only Cols. Albright and Hunter in camp.

An order was read on dress parade yesterday assigning Maj. Gen. Siegel to the command of the troops in Reading. The General rode through camp yesterday, and was received with the most unbounded enthusiasm by the troops. He was closely followed by a shadow, in the shape of a big Dutchman with a tremendous moustache, who appeared every inch a soldier. Since the reading of the above order I frequently hear the strain

"Oh dat is true I speaks mit you,
And goes to fight mit Siegel"

No more knapsacks will be issued to Pennsylvania militia. From this I take it that we will either be sent home soon, or have "rapid and long marches". Our boys all prefer the latter, and do not want to lay in camp long. If Lee receives re-inforcement's we may yet see some fighting of which all seem anxious.

Our amusements and the means resorted to to produce merriment, are various; and as we have some geniuses in our company, we never lack material for exciting our risibilities. The Company having subscribed liberally, a violin was purchase, and music, vocal and instrumental, serves to dispel the monotony of camp life. Siewers is the showman of our company. He can imitate a country showman to perfection. Last evening he got two men, covered them with blankets, in imitation of an elephant, and placed two pieces of boards under the arms of the front man, imitating tusks. After having gathered a crowd of lady and gentlemen visitors, and soldiers around him, he proceeded to go through the performances by proving the docility of the animals. He would lie down and have him walk over him, and go through any other performances. Sometimes two men are placed one on top of the other, representing the famous "Belgian Giant," and many other things done too numerous to find room in this letter to enumerate.

Our Quarter Master, Charley E. Leisenring, is the observed of all observers in our camp. His tent adjoins the street which is the promenade of visitors. Seated on his chair in front of his tent, with his head thrown back, he looks the very picture of ease and contentment, and few pass him without making some remark concerning his corpulency, which, like all fat people, he takes good naturedly. A good thing on Charley is, that Uncle Sam, not thinking he had such corpulent subjects, made no provision for clothing; the consequence was that Charley was minus a uniform, and was actually compelled to go to the city to get one made to order. All the housewives in the neighborhood have become weary baking waffles for him.

Below please find a list of our company officers and men as mustered into service, for three months unless sooner discharged:

I cannot close this letter without paying a merited tribute to our gallant little Colonel, who is decidedly a military man in every sense of the word. Understanding his business thoroughly, he does all things well. Being a thorough disciplinarian, our regiment already has a soldierly appearance. Added to this he has executive talents of no ordinary kind; and should we have any fights, I do not think I am wrong in predicting that he will make his mark. The boys have confidence in and will follow him anywhere.

Our regiment is the 34th Pa. Militia.

Yours,
T. F. W.
