Owczarek/Ozark Family

Note ... It's important to realize that since Chicago is and was such a big city, this means that it's harder to get family history information. It's too daunting of a task for organizations to publish and/or index the materials for such a large and populated area. Because of that, there are few resources that can be accessed for this family research. Additionally, it is always more challenging to find records for more recent immigrants – privacy laws and other factors make it so that less material is available for the last 100 years than for the preceding centuries. Additionally this family emigrated at a time when passenger records were not as detailed as they would be in a few years and also Chicago marriage and other records were notably skimpy on information!

OWCZAREK/OZARK FAMILY

Ancestors of Ted Ovcarick

What is presented below is the information learned about this family. There is so much more that can be learned. Recognize also that the focus is on the main lineage ... this means that any information on collateral lines is incidental unless it was easy to get or it helped with the main lineage.

Obvious from the chart above, there is much that we do not know. We don't even know siblings of Anton and Michalina except for Anton's sister Ann (see Appendix F) who emigrated with Michalina and children... so, view this as a start ... it will be updated as information becomes available.

We also know from a census entry that Michalina and Anton had 10 children, 5 of which lived. We know 2 that died in the US and this leaves 3 children that we have not identified yet!

Emigration

Anton emigrated first in 1904<sup>i</sup> and then the rest of the family, including a sister of Anton's emigrated in 1905<sup>ii</sup>.

Birth, Marriage & Death

Children of ANTONI
OWCZAREK and MICHALINA DORACHOWSKI are:

EDWARD OWCZAREK, b.

Abt. 1898, Russia/Polish.

m. Ruth ??

d. between 1951 & 1964 ?

(the years his parents died or is he the Ed Shephard mentioned?)

JOSEPH OWCZAREK, b. 17

Mar 1901, Russia/Polish

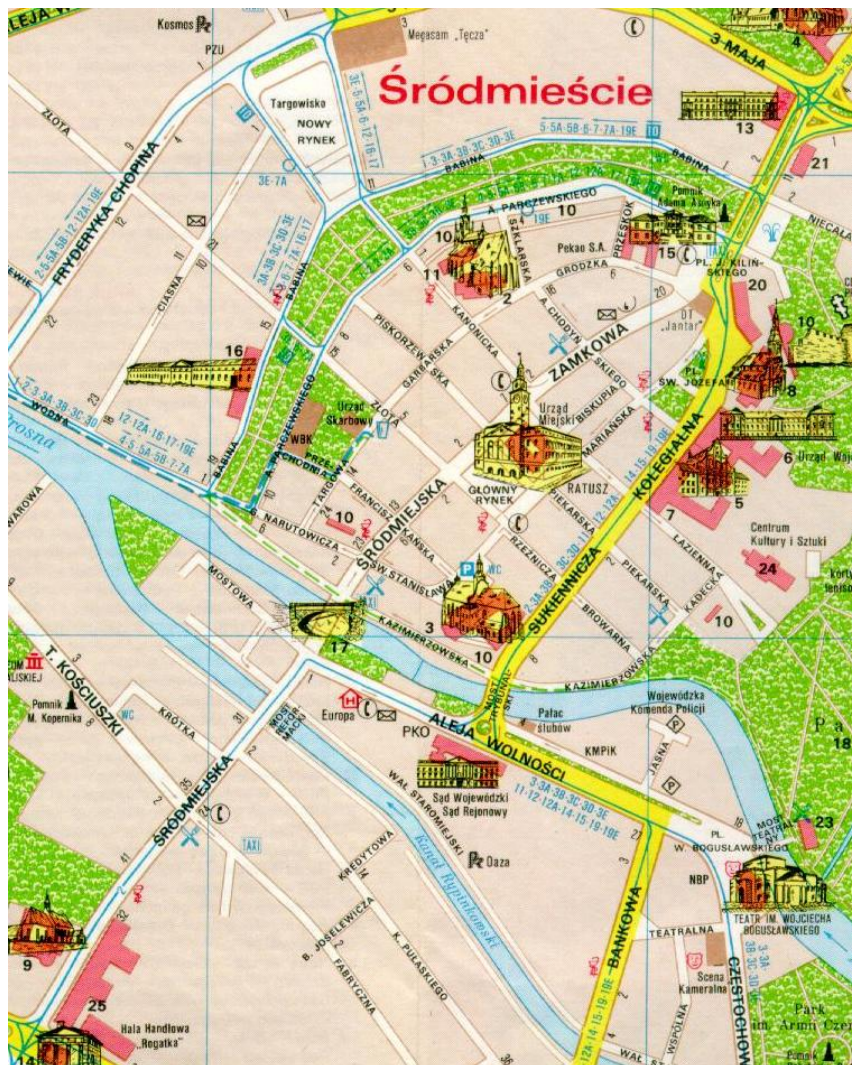

d. 08 Nov 1993, Illinois –

(SSDI, www.familysearch.org, Entry states: Joseph OZARK, birth 17 Mar
1900, death 8 Nov 1993, 65721
(Ozark, Christian, MO))

m. VICTORIA; b. 21 Dec

Christian, MO))

Ozark Family : Kalisz, Poland → Chicago

GESLAWA OWCZAREK, b. Abt. 1902, Russia/Polish

m. James PURCELL. She became known as Jessie. (we know this from death notices for Anton & Michalina). We know from obituary that husband James died in CA, so, is this Jessie? This is the same locale that James is listed for at his death in 1981.

JESSIE PURCELL	12 Dec 1901	16 May 1993	91604 (Studio City, Los Angeles, CA )	(none specified)	332-50- 5199	Illinois
-------------------	----------------	----------------	---	---------------------	-----------------	----------

TADIUZA OWCZAREK, b. Abt. 1905, Russia/Polish

Based on 1910 Census, died before 1910. It appears that the English equivalent of this name would be Hedwig. We can then use this information to search the Illinois pre-1916 death database<sup>iii</sup> We do find a Hedwig Owczarek who died 6/10/1906 at 1 year of age.

This might be her death certificate<sup>iv</sup>. It has this child as in the US for about 11 months, it's really closer to 10 months and that's probably a quibble. The address of 586 N. Ashland Ave doesn't match that given by Anton in 1904 nor the 1910 census and it wasn't unusual for newly arrived emigrants to move around a bit.

Permit for Burial will be issued only on this form of Report correctly filled out with ink.

Ozark Family : Kalisz, Poland → Chicago

NOTE: a birth entry in the "0" records for March 1907 did not show any permutation of a name or parents that would be him. The birth registers are not listed in any order, neither alphabetically or by date. So, it's possibly there was a delay in his birth being registered and this would require a linear search through subsequent records<sup>v</sup>.

JUDWIKA OWCZAREK, b. 20 Feb 1909 (death certificate), Chicago Illinois
d. 21 Feb 1912, Chicago Illinois

Possibly this death entry: the same Illinois pre-1916 death database as consulted above -- daughter (born c. 1909) who died between 1910 and 1920. Her name in 1910 census looks like Judwika ... if we look at the same index, we find Owczarek, Jadwiga, 2/21/1912, Chicago at 3 years of age. This is the actual certificate<sup>vi</sup> ... This was a very helpful document as it gave Michalina's maiden name, DORACHOWSKI! Unfortunately, it is difficult to read the address, it appears to be 2817 N. Hamlin.

Naturalization

Antoni Owczarek,
2817 N Hamlin
Born 5/9/1870
Date of naturalization: 3/21/1913
Cert no: P7589
Superior Court

COUNTRY OF BIRTH/ALLEGIANCE
IS RUSSIA

NOTE: this also matches the address given on the death certificate for Jadwiga so this confirms that she was their daughter.

Other details provided in the Declaration of Intention (signed 12 December 1912) are:

Occupation: Cabinet Maker

Born: Kalisz Russia (see Appendix

(NOTE: interestingly, almost none of the emigration records match what really happened except that he did come via Hamburg to New York on the ship Moltke ... the rest is incorrect)

Declared intention to become a citizen on 12 January 1906 at Chicago Illinois, in the Superior Court of Cook County Illinois

Wife listed as Minnie Owczarek, born Kalisz Russia
